A
That brings back memories, I had just upgraded from novice to general,
I bought a used Heath DX 100 (the 100 stood for 100 lbs of broadcast quality am transmitter) and the strongest signal on 40 phone was "no lids, no kids, no space cadets.." I didn't even know what a lid was.

(Needless to say He didn't come back to me)
